

Chelsea
CONSIGNMENT
Quality Apparel & Home Décor

Items are accepted by appointment only. We can look at up to 25 items per appointment. We ask that items come in on hangers, clean, and ready to be worn. For furniture or larger home decor pieces, please email or call us with a description of your item before bringing it to the store.

We no longer have an annual membership fee. A monthly service fee of $2.50 will be withdrawn automatically from your account balance.

Items are displayed for a 60-day selling period. If you would like your unsold items returned to you, contact us before the end of your 60-day selling period to arrange your pickup. After an additional 20-day grace period, unsold items left at the store become property of Chelsea Consignments LLC and will be marked down and/or donated at our discretion.

You will receive 40% of the selling price* for items that sell below $50. You will receive 50% for items that sell for $50 or more, and you will receive 60% of your fine jewelry sales and luxury items. You can visit our website to check your inventory status, view your account balance, and submit your ACH information.

Consignor payouts are available after the 10th of the month for items sold the month(s) prior. We suggest calling ahead before stopping into collect.

You will receive an additional 6% when you use your balance towards an in-store purchase. We do offer payouts via ACH for $2.50, or we can mail checks $2.50.

*Selling price excludes taxes and fees

-Chelsea Consignment is not responsible for items lost to fire or theft.

Balances left on an inactive account for more than one year will be reverted to store credit.
